Mrs Axford

Miss Robson

We are here to help.

When we get into school, we hang our coats up on our pegs. Your peg will have your name on it.

We put our water bottles and lunch boxes on the trolley inside the classroom.

Our green book bags go in our trays in the classroom. Your tray will have your name on it.

What books do you like to look at?

Burt is a big boy. He can go to the toilet and wash and dry his hands by himself.

Can you look after yourself at the toilet and wash and dry your hands?

Burt enjoys playing in the classroom. Sometimes he can choose what he would like to do. Other times he works with an adult.

Put photos or draw pictures of what you like to do indoors here.

Burt loves to play and learn outside too.

Put photos or draw pictures of what you like to do outdoors here.

Burt has lots of friends that play together.

What are your friends called? _____

What do you like to do together?

Draw you and your friend having fun here.

At lunch time Burt has a packed lunch with his favourite food.

Sometimes he has a school dinner.

What do you like to eat? Is there anything that you are not allowed to eat?

Burt loves to write his name on his work.

Can you write your name?

Burt also loves to count and look at numbers.

Can you count to 10 and recognise the numbers?

What a busy day! Burt waits with the teacher for Mum to come and pick him up. Granny sometimes comes to pick him up for a treat!

Who will pick you up from school? What do you like to do after a lovely day?

Burt loves to snuggle in his bed and think about his day. Mum or Dad reads a story. His favourite book at bedtime is 'We're going on a Bear Hunt'.

What is your favourite bedtime story?

Burt is very excited about meeting you. We hope that you are excited about joining us at St. Bede's in September.
